The Department of Mathematics has exceeded my expectations. The unique part about being a math major is that every problem is different. I have learned how to analyze a situation and use the insights that I have gained to solve a problem.

– Angela Palumbo ’13