All courses with “POLS” prefix, HIST 317, HIST 318, SOCI 277. A minimum MQPA of 2.00 is required to graduate.

Effective communication and research skills are indispensable for career advancement in the variety of fields available to Political Science majors, including law, government at all levels, and business. Thus, the Political Science Department has incorporated Information Literacy (IL) instruction in Political Science 101 and 277, which are required for all majors. Further, all majors must satisfy Speaking Intensive (SI) and Writing Intensive (WI) requirements by taking either Political Science 309 or 350.

Recommended electives:

Students planning to do graduate work in Political Science are encouraged to acquire backgrounds in mathematics and statistics. Courses in computer literacy are also recommended. All Ph.D. programs require competency in at least two foreign languages as well. Students seeking law school are advised to take Accounting, Business Law, Constitutional History, and Symbolic Logic. A broad background in the social sciences, history, and the humanities is recommended.

Students are expected to contact their advisor for a detailed schedule of courses to fulfill requirements for a major.

Course Requirements for a minor in Political Science (18 hours)

Political Science Core (15 hours):

Political Science 101, 104, 201, and 204.

One course from Political Science 106, 256, or 350.

Political Science electives (3 hours):

Choose three hours from courses with POLS prefix.
