Grove City College's alumni magazine honored with public relations society award

GROVE CITY, Pa. – The Grove City College GeDUNK Alumni Magazine was recently honored with a first-place Renaissance Award from the Public Relations Society of America's Pittsburgh chapter.

PRSA honored the GeDUNK Alumni Magazine at a ceremony at Heinz Field on Jan. 22. The evening included a tour of the stadium and the program was hosted by Andrew Stockey of WTAE-TV. Grove City College Senior Director of Communications Amy Clingensmith, a 1996 graduate of the College, serves as the managing editor of the magazine and accepted the award at the ceremony.

The Pittsburgh chapter of PRSA includes institutes of higher education in the Pittsburgh region, as well as public relations and marketing firms. Those also in attendance and competing for Renaissance Awards included the University of Pittsburgh, Carnegie Mellon University, Duquesne University, Ketchum Public Relations, Burson-Marsteller, Jack Horner Communications, MARC USA Advertising and Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, among others.
