

Grove City College

Hazing Report

Pennsylvania Act of October 19, 2018, P. L. 535, No. 80

Covering Academic Years 2016-2017 to 2020-2021 and Fall Semester 2021 (updated January 1, 2022)

PAGE 1 of 2

Subject	Report/Investigation Description	Resolution/Sanctions
Gamma Chi Sorority	On February 18, 2021, a report was made alleging the sorority violated the College's hazing and Greek Unity Week policies. The Office of Student Life & Learning conducted an investigation. The sorority leadership cooperated and admitted they were in violation.	On February, 25, 2021, the case was resolved and the sorority received probation for a period of one year, as well as an additional probation for the duration of the pledge period for both the Spring 2022 and Spring 2023 semesters. Members of the sorority also received sanctions in accordance with their level of involvement.
Nu Lambda Phi Fraternity	On February 11, 2019 the fraternity came to the Office of Student Life & Learning to report that they had violated the College's hazing and Greek Unity Week policies and the Office of Student Life & Learning conducted a thorough investigation.	On February 20, 2019, the case was resolved and the fraternity received probation for a period of one year, $250 fine, 100 hours of community service, required to restructure their Greek Unity Week activities, required to assist the Associate Dean of Student Life with planning future educational opportunities on anti-hazing for all of the College's fraternities and sororities, a meeting with the President of the College to discuss integrity, complete risk/liability training, a ban from All-College Sing and Inter Fraternity Sports for a period of one year, and the development of a commitment to excellence plan in conjunction with their advisor. Several members of the fraternity also received sanctions in accordance with their level of involvement.

Grove City College

Hazing Report

Pennsylvania Act of October 19, 2018, P. L. 535, No. 80

Covering Academic Years 2016-2017 to 2020-2021 and Fall Semester 2021 (updated January 1, 2022)

PAGE 2 of 2

Beta Sigma Fraternity	On February 7, 2019 the fraternity was confronted for behavior that violated the College's hazing and Greek Unity Week policies. The Office of Student Life & Learning conducted an investigation after the initial confrontation.	On February 20, 2019, the case was resolved and the fraternity received probation for a period of one year, $250 fine, 100 hours of community service, required to restructure their Greek Unity Week activities, required to assist the Associate Dean of Student Life with planning future educational opportunities on anti-hazing for all of the College's fraternities and sororities, a meeting with the President of the College to discuss integrity, complete risk/liability training, a ban from All-College Sing and Inter Fraternity Sports for a period of one year, and the development of a commitment to excellence plan in conjunction with their advisor. Several members of the fraternity also received sanctions in accordance with their level of involvement.
Delta Iota Kappa Fraternity	On February 7, 2017, a report was made alleging the fraternity verbally abused new members. The Office of Student Life & Learning (SLL) investigated and the fraternity was found to be in violation of the College's hazing and Greek Unity Week policies.	On February 27, 2017, the case was resolved and the fraternity was required to review and change all concerning activities and practices and placed on probation for a period of one year.
Sigma Theta Chi Sorority	On January 12, 2017, a report was made alleging the sorority put unreasonable expectations on their new members resulting in sleep deprivation and undue mental stress. SLL investigated and found the sorority to be in violation of the College's hazing and Greek Unity Week policies.	On February 28, 2017, the case was resolved and the sorority was placed on probation for one year. They were also required to review and change any and all activities not already in alignment with hazing laws and the College's Greek Unity Week policies.